

Peasmarsh Chamber Music Festival

Advertising rate card and booking form 2015

Over the past 16 years the chamber music festival in Peasmarsh has become a cherished fixture in the diaries of music lovers. Patrons travel from near and far, to enjoy magnificent concerts in Peasmarsh and in Rye. The Festival also works with children in local schools in Peasmarsh and Beckley. The Festival sells around 1,200 tickets each year (although several audience members attend more than one concert); our Festival programme is popular among audience members, containing information both on the music being performed as well as information about our sponsors, advertisers and supporters.
