

Peasmarsh Chamber Music Festival

Artistic Directors: Anthony Marwood MBE
and Richard Lester

2025 Festival - 26 to 29 June 2025

Friends and Patrons

The summer chamber music festival in Peasmarsh, directed by Anthony Marwood and Richard Lester, is a cherished regular fixture in the diaries of music lovers from near and far. We would like to invite you to become a Friend or Patron to support the festival in Peasmarsh and to help it to reach ever greater heights. Your support will ensure that a vibrant, stimulating and world-class festival will continue and will enable us to develop our education work with local schools while giving audiences new and old access to superlative concerts in this special corner of East Sussex.

Friends' Benefits: Festival brochure in advance; priority booking period; newsletters; invitations to spring party and reception during the Festival; acknowledgment of support in Festival Programme.

Silver Patrons' Benefits: all the benefits above; Patrons super-priority booking period; invitation to attend a Patrons' Reception during the Festival.

Gold Patrons' Benefits: all the benefits above; invitation to an open rehearsal during the Festival, where possible.

Platinum Patrons' Benefits: all the benefits above; opportunity to treat your donation as supporting a particular artist or contributing to the support of a particular guest ensemble during the Festival, and acknowledgement of that support in the Festival Programme.

Newsletters and festival updates will be sent by email unless otherwise requested. The Festival brochure will be sent by post.
